

JOT-Flexible Learning Places

City of Espoo & Aalto University Department of Architecture
New learning environments based on the concept of JOT project

Organizers

City of Espoo <http://www.espoo.fi>

Group X, Department of Architecture, Aalto University <http://www.groupxaalto.fi>

External Guests

Stephen Heppell, <http://www.heppell.net>

Teemu Tuomi, NRT Architects, <http://www.n-r-t.fi>

Venue

Urban Mill - Aalto University
Otaniemi Campus
Betonimiehenkuja 5
02150 Espoo, Finland
<http://urbanmill.org/english>

Date and hour

December 14th, 2015, 09:00-15:00

09:00 JOT Workshop

City of Espoo, Sampo Suihko + Aalto University, Jarmo Suominen + Stephen Heppell

Lecture by Stephen Heppell: New Learning Environments
Development from JOT to SaaS

JOT parameters defining new learning environments for SaaS concept

1. Accessibility: physical, virtual and social
2. Flexibility: physical, virtual and social
3. Ownership: physical, virtual and social

12:00 Lunch

13:00 Final review Flexible Learning Places studio course JOT parameters in systemic solution

Labs for Learners studio course (5 students; 20 min./student)

Teachers: Jarmo Suominen, Antti Ahlava, Fernando Nieto

Guest critics: Stephen Heppell, Teemu Tuomi, Tiina Riihimäki

15:00 End of event

Takeaway:

New systemic learning environments fostering value co-creation and social learning. What are they, how these environments could be developed and designed. What are the characteristics of physical, virtual and social solutions? What to build and why?