

Teacher gives feedback in Feedback Studio

Overview of Feedback studio (click the picture to maximise it):

2.5. Grade 9. Move to a previous or a next submission 10. Instructions (Turnitin.com)

7. Jump between pages

2.4. Insert a QuickMark comment/ Comment/ text comment on view on the spot you click

1. Layers (show whether they are active or hidden)

2. Show/Hide instructor feedback layer blue= comments in view, black= comments hidden

2.1 QuickMarks

2.2 Feedback summary: voice or text comment on whole document

2.3 Rubric/Form

3. Show/Hide similarity layer
red= similarities in view, black= similarities hidden

3.1 Match overview

3.2 All sources + exclude sources

3.3 Filters and settings

3.4 Excluded sources

4. Download (current view as pdf / digital receipt of submission / originally submitted file)

4.1 Submission information

6. Page number of the page in view & word count of the whole paper

5. Zooming a submission

Links to the Turnitin Instructor guides:

Navigating the Feedback Studio

Commenting tools

How to create, edit or archive QuickMark sets and comments

Rubrics and grading forms

How to create and use a grading form

How to create and use a rubric for assessing

- The following rubrics that are used in Aalto University can be uploaded into your own Turnitin Feedback Studio. Note, that the context of the file can be viewed only in Feedback Studio
 - ARTS_Master_s_thesis.rbc (added on 22.2.2019, based on the rubric that is published in Into)

Multiple markers on the same document

See also how students view feedback in Feedback Studio.

Next

- Rights and responsibilities - Use of Turnitin is regulated by Aalto University Code of Academic Integrity
- Supporting scientific writing during program