Valuation (2.6.2020)

deviantART does not claim ownership rights in the user's content. It should be taken into account that third party users could be able to copy uploaded content.

The site collects information from users with cookies. These are mainly for login purposes and tracking what the user views inside the site. deviantART does not share your Personally Identifiable Information with third parties without permission. This might be required if the user buys art from the service (payment information etc.) deviantART aggregates the Anonymous Information that they collect and exchange it with advertisers and others who are interested in their services.

- + deviantART does not claim ownership rights in works or other material posted by the user
- + relatively small amounts of data collected from the user
- + deviantART promises to inform about license changes by email.
